

Mittelalter-Folk

www.furax.at

Press text

"Furax" is a trio from Vienna (Austria) that mainly performs historical tunes and well-known songs in a new and free way, as well as their own compositions. From quiet ballads, minnesongs, drinking songs and well-known hymns in a rockier versions.

Due to their versatility, the varied repertoire and the wide instrumental range, they can offer the greatest possible musical variety in a small ensemble and bring historical songs closer to the audience.

Their flexibility, audience- and especially the joy of making music together are their greatest strengths.

DIEBISCH GUT!